EMPLOYMENT AGENCY SERVICES AGREEMENT No. 125-35585

Between the undersigned:

The Company Talent Smart Limited, Private limited Company, whose registered office is situated at Upper Deck Admirals Quarters, Portsmouth Road, United-Kingdom, registered with the Register of Companies of England and Wales under number 11352266, Represented by FANTHOM Philip, Legal Representative, hereinafter referred to as the "Client"
On the one hand

And
KIWEE, a simplified joint-stock company (with a sole shareholder), with a share capital of 50,000 euros, whose registered office is situated at 128 rue La Boétie, Office 46, 75008 Paris, registered with the Paris Trade and Companies Register under number 919 602 011, Represented by Mr Cyril POCACHARD, Legal Representative,
Hereinafter referred to as "KIWEE" or "the Service Provider" or "the Umbrella Company (EPS)" On the other hand

Hereinafter referred to individually as a "Party" and, collectively, as the "Parties",

It is hereby agreed as follows

PREAMBLE

The Service Provider or the Umbrella Company (EPS) is a company carrying out umbrella employment services within the meaning of Article L.1254-1 et seq. of the Labour Code and referred to as the EPS or the Service Provider.
The Client has been in contact with the Umbrella Employee, designated in the special terms and conditions, with whom the Client has decided to collaborate in view of the expertise the Client has been able to assess, in order to carry out the Service defined in the Contract.
This Service constitutes an occasional task not falling within the scope of the Client's normal and permanent business, or a one-off Service requiring expertise which the Client does not possess. It may not be used to replace an Employee absent due to a strike (Article L.1254-4 of the Labour Code), nor to carry out certain particularly dangerous tasks listed in Article L.4154-1 of the Labour Code, or personal care services mentioned in Article L.7231-1 of the same Code. Nor may the Service exceed a duration of thirty-six months.

It is in accordance with the specific framework of the umbrella company scheme that the parties have agreed to this Commercial Contract for the Provision of Umbrella Company Services, as defined in Articles L1254-1 to L1254-31 of the Labour Code, which consequently sets out the essential elements of the negotiation of the Service between the Client and the designated Umbrella Employee, who shall receive a copy of the Agreement, which may be in electronic form.
The purpose of this Agreement is to set out the general terms and specific conditions for the performance of service assignments by the KIWEE Umbrella Employee for the benefit of the Client. This Agreement incorporates the essential elements of the negotiation of the Service between the Umbrella Employee and the Client.
It is in accordance with the specific framework of the Payroll Agency scheme that the parties have agreed to this Commercial Contract for Payroll Agency Services, as defined in Articles L1254-1 to L1254-31 of the Labour Code, which consequently sets out the essential elements of the negotiation of the Service between the Client and the designated Wage Portage Employee, who shall receive a copy of the Agreement, which may be in electronic form.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE (GTC)

SCOPE OF APPLICATION:

These GTC apply to all Umbrella Employment Services agreed between KIWEE and Clients for the performance of service assignments by an Employee employed under KIWEE's umbrella on behalf of the Clients.

CLIENT'S OBLIGATIONS

The Client undertakes to:

- cooperate with the Employee,
- to this end, to designate, from among its staff, in addition to a designated contact person, qualified individuals who may also act as contacts for KIWEE,
- validate the monthly activity report(s) no later than one week after the date on which the CRA(s) or the Activity Declaration is sent or entered by the Service Provider or the Umbrella Employee; such validation constitutes acceptance of the work carried out during the month as part of the agreed Service.

- provide the Umbrella Employee with the information necessary to perform the Services, including sources, specifications and any relevant technical documents,
- comply with the standard terms of use for the software and with all the provisions of this Contract,
- to allow the Umbrella Employee access to its premises in order to perform the contractual Services,
- pay the fee for the Services provided by the Umbrella Employee, pay the fee for any additional services that may be required during the performance of this Contract, subject to an addendum to the Contract signed by the Client.
- to provide the Umbrella Employee with access to hardware and software, including remotely where necessary, by supplying the relevant login details, so that they may perform the Services in accordance with the terms of this Contract,
- make available to the Umbrella Employee all access and all hardware and software resources necessary for the secure performance of the Services,
- not to undertake any action which, directly or indirectly, would block or slow down the performance of the Services, without first informing KIWEE and the Umbrella Employee by email or telephone,
- systematically inform the Umbrella Employee of any changes to system configuration or network access that would affect the smooth running of the assignment entrusted to the Umbrella Employee,
- take all necessary steps and measures to safeguard data, in order to prevent any loss thereof during the Umbrella Employee's assignment.

Where the assignment entrusted to the Employee, as agreed with the Employee, is likely to involve working conditions that entail a risk of exposure to hazardous work within the meaning of Articles R 4511-1 to R 4514-10 of the Labour Code and/or requires the provision of personal protective equipment, the Client shall inform the EPS, which shall supply the Umbrella Employee with the necessary personal protective equipment (or, failing that, the Umbrella Employee's own equipment) and shall ensure that the Umbrella Employee possesses the skills, sufficient information and training to carry out the said assignment under the required safety conditions in accordance with the provisions of Article L1254-23(6) and (7) of the Labour Code.

In the event that the employment agency assignment negotiated between the Client company and the Agency Employee involves specific circumstances such as, but not limited to, night work, Sunday work, on-call duty, etc., it is the Client company's responsibility to inform the Employment Agency without delay.

These specific situations are governed by specific legal provisions, which may require prior action by the Umbrella Employment Agency (including, but not limited to, notification of the DRIEETS, consultation with staff representatives, the implementation of ad hoc measures) and/or the provision of safeguards for the benefit of the Umbrella Employee (including, but not limited to, the explicit consent of the Umbrella Employee, medical supervision, a salary supplement where applicable, compensatory rest, etc.). They must therefore be anticipated in advance by the Client Company.

Where the assignment is carried out, in whole or in part, via teleworking or remotely (at the Umbrella Employee's home or at a third-party location in France, or, where applicable, on an ad hoc basis (for less than 54 days for a full-time role over twelve consecutive months) abroad, subject to the Client's written consent and prior written notification to EPS), the Client shall have ensured in advance that there is secure access to the network provided, as well as compliance with cybersecurity rules. The Service Provider shall not be held liable for any failure.
The Client undertakes to inform the EPS of any event that could affect the continuity of the Service.
The Client undertakes to accept the deliverables and to sign the Service Provider's project reports, which may be in electronic form.

KIWEE'S OBLIGATIONS

KIWEE and the Umbrella Employee undertake to:

- take all necessary care in the performance of the Services in accordance with best practice. This obligation is, by express agreement, a mere obligation of means. The Service is performed by the Employee in accordance with best practice and the terms negotiated between the Employee and the Client. The Client remains solely responsible for the solutions chosen and implemented by them, as well as for the analysis of studies carried out at their request,
- to ensure, in general, compliance with the provisions of this Contract, in particular with regard to intellectual property and confidentiality,
- comply with the technical principles and choices, as well as the constraints and standards applicable to each task under the Contract, which are explicitly specified and communicated by the Client. Any challenge to these elements must be subject to prior assessment and written agreement between the two Parties,
- provide all necessary advice for the implementation of the Client's project,
- notify the Client, as soon as they become aware of it, of any matter which they consider likely to compromise the proper performance of the Services or to influence their progress or results,
- carry out the assignment in accordance with the Client's requirements, from their home and/or at the various premises and sites designated by the Client. The Employee may be required to travel wherever the requirements of their assignment necessitate.

TERMS OF PERFORMANCE

During the performance of the Service, KIWEE shall act as an independent Service Provider, and the seconded Employee assigned to carry out the assignments shall not act, nor be deemed to act, as an employee, agent, representative or delegate of the Client for any purpose whatsoever. The Parties do not intend to form any legal entity, and any form of "affectio societatis" is expressly excluded.

PRICES AND TERMS OF PAYMENT

The price of the Service, agreed between the Contractor and the Client, is that specified in Article 1 or in the special terms and conditions. It may be set as a fixed fee, or based on calculation methods specifying hourly or daily rates, or as remuneration rates based on jointly defined reference values. This price includes management fees, all remuneration due to the Assignee (basic gross remuneration, business contribution allowance, paid holiday allowance, precariousness allowance, any variable bonus), employer's contributions, payroll taxes and other charges and/or taxes, any professional expenses and any deductions in respect of employee savings schemes or provisions.
Prices are always quoted exclusive of French VAT and without discount. VAT is invoiced in accordance with the applicable legal regulations. Any change to the price may only be made by way of an amendment to this Contract. Any deposit paid by the Client is non-refundable. Invoices are sent to the Client's designated department.

Invoicing shall be carried out monthly on a time-spent basis, based on the Activity Reports (CRA) or Activity Statements drawn up by the Employee and signed by the Client in accordance with the agreed Service; validation of the CRA or Activity Statement shall constitute acceptance of the work carried out during the month as part of the agreed Service.
KIWEE will send the Client an invoice at the end of each month for the duration of the Services. Payment shall be made by the Client within 30 days of the date of issue of the said invoices. Any delay in payment shall give rise to interest calculated at a rate equal to three times the statutory rate and a fixed compensation of forty (40) euros for recovery costs (Articles L 441-6 and D 441-5 of the French Commercial Code).

TRAVEL EXPENSES

Travel and accommodation expenses, postage costs, and expenditure incurred for supplies or documentation shall be set out in an expense statement, which must be submitted to the Client for approval, accompanied by the relevant supporting documents. These expenses shall then be invoiced by KIWEE to the Client on the basis of this expense statement.
The daily rate is fully inclusive of all travel and subsistence expenses unless expressly pre-approved in writing by the Client.

SUSPENSION OF THE CONTRACT

This Agreement shall be suspended in the event of the suspension of the Employment Contract between the Contractor and the EPS for any reason whatsoever, without the EPS being held liable.

TERMINATION

In the event of a material breach by either Party of any of the obligations arising under this Agreement, the other Party may terminate this Agreement without the need to comply with any legal formalities fifteen (15) working days after a formal notice, sent by registered post with acknowledgement of receipt, requiring the Party to fulfil its obligations, has remained without effect.

Either Party may terminate this Agreement at any time subject to thirty (30) days' notice, commencing on the day following notification of the termination by email and/or by sending an amendment.

This Service Agreement shall be deemed to have been terminated automatically, without notice, without the need for any formalities and without any penalty being payable, on the date on which the Umbrella Employee ceases to perform their duties, or in the event of the Umbrella Employee's death, terms of the Umbrella Employment Contract having led the parties to acknowledge that its performance is expressly entrusted to the sole Umbrella Employee designated in the special terms and conditions.

The Client may terminate for convenience on 10 working days' notice with no further liability beyond approved time worked up to termination date.

In the event of termination of this Contract, or of the Services governed by this Contract, the Umbrella Employee undertakes:

- to deliver all elements of the Service, regardless of their format or degree of completion, that he has produced as at the date of termination, and to grant the rights attached thereto,
- to return the tools and processes, granting the rights necessary for the completion of the Service, and more generally any equipment and/or item of any nature and on any medium that may have been made available to the Employee by the End Client for the performance of the Services.

The Umbrella Employee is required to return all resources (equipment, tools, badges, etc.) made available to them by the End Client in connection with each Order, within three (3) working days of the end of the Services, regardless of the reason.

INSURANCE

KIWEE is covered by civil and professional liability insurance (policy number BFR/907023 taken out with Beazley Insurance Designated Activity Company).

KIWEE, in accordance with the rules of the Payroll Services scheme, has taken out a financial guarantee with the insurance company AXA France IARD, Contract number: 11051119504.

CONFIDENTIALITY

For the purposes of this clause, 'Confidential Information' includes all data, information, documents, software or materials relating to the commercial, financial, technical, business or regulatory activities of the Client or its Clients, including the end client, which the Umbrella Employee receives directly or indirectly from the Client or the end client during the term of the Contract, including this Contract, its financial terms and conditions, and all contractual clauses relating to the terms of collaboration between these parties.

The Parties undertake to treat as confidential the terms of this Contract as well as all commercial, financial, technical or other information obtained in the course of its performance.

In particular, the Parties shall refrain from disclosing to third parties other than their own staff any confidential information as defined above.

The Parties undertake to ensure that their staff strictly comply with the above confidentiality obligation.

The following shall not be regarded as confidential information:

- already in a Party's possession without any obligation of confidentiality;
- developed independently;
- obtained without any obligation of confidentiality from a source other than the disclosing Party;
- is publicly available at the time of its disclosure, or becomes so without any fault on the part of the recipient;
- or disclosed by the licensor to third parties without any obligation of confidentiality.

This confidentiality obligation shall apply throughout the term of this Agreement and for a period of five (5) years following its termination or expiry.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

KIWEE and the Umbrella Employee shall assign to the Client, on an exclusive basis, as and when the Services are performed and subject to full payment thereof, all intellectual property rights (including, in particular, the rights of reproduction, performance, adaptation, modification and, more generally, exploitation) relating to the deliverables, worldwide and for the entire duration of the legal protection applicable to the deliverables in France.

DATA PROTECTION

In accordance with European Regulation 2016/679 on the Protection of Personal Data (GDPR), and any other applicable regulations, the Client hereby declares that they are aware that the personal data they provide may be processed and used by KIWEE for the performance of this Contract. The data controller for personal data is KIWEE, with its registered office at 128 rue La Boétie, office 46, 75008 Paris. Where the performance of the tasks entrusted to the Umbrella Employee involves the Client transmitting Personal Data collected by the Client in the course of its activities, the EPS shall not use such data for any purpose of its own; the Client remains the data controller. In accordance with the GDPR, the EPS has implemented security measures for its IT and digital tools, in particular through the use of secure passwords. In the event of a data breach, the EPS shall inform the Client.

The Client, upon providing proof of identity, may request that personal data concerning them be rectified, supplemented, updated or erased. The Client may exercise the rights listed above by writing to compliance@kiwee.services .

REFERENCES

The Client authorises KIWEE and the designated Employee(s) under the Contract to include the agreed work, once completed, in their portfolio of projects.

HIERARCHY OF TERMS

This Contract, together with its amendments and annexes, contains all the commitments of the parties; any correspondence, offers or proposals prior to the Contract are deemed null and void and may not be used for the interpretation of the Contract.
The parties expressly agree that in the event of any conflict, these provisions – in particular the specific clauses relating to the Wage Portage arrangement herein – shall prevail over any General Terms and Conditions of Purchase (GTC) of the Client. Consequently, any penalty clauses relating to non-competition, exclusivity, replacement of the Umbrella Employee, obligation to achieve results, penalties and/or compensation of any kind, including those for delay, non-performance, improper performance, failure to return entrusted equipment, return of damaged/deteriorated equipment, failure to comply with notice periods and/or non-competition, shall not apply unless specifically stated.

GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

This Contract is governed by French law.
The Parties undertake to use their best endeavours to resolve amicably any dispute that may arise between them in connection with this Contract.
In the absence of an amicable resolution, any disputes relating to the interpretation, performance or termination of this Agreement shall be submitted to the Commercial Court of Paris, which shall have exclusive jurisdiction, even in the event of summary proceedings, third-party proceedings or multiple defendants.

FORCE MAJEURE

Neither Party shall be held liable and the Contract shall be suspended if its performance or the performance of any obligation incumbent upon the Parties under the Contract is prevented, restricted or disrupted as a result of an event constituting a force majeure event as recognised by the case law of the French courts.

The Party affected by the force majeure event, provided that it notifies the other Party by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt within eight (8) days of the event occurring, shall be excused from performing its obligations to the extent of such hindrance, disruption or limitation.

The other Party shall then, in the same manner, be exempted from the performance of its own obligations, again to the extent of the impediment, disruption or limitation.

The performance of the obligations of the Party prevented from performing shall be deferred for a period at least equal to the duration of the suspension caused by force majeure.

However, if the duration of the force majeure event exceeds fifteen (15) days from the date of notification, the services ordered under this Contract may be terminated automatically and without legal formalities by the unaffected Party, subject to fifteen (15) days' notice, served by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt to the defaulting Party. During the the duration of the force majeure event, the Party invoking it shall make every effort to minimise its effects on the proper performance of the Contract.

By express agreement between the parties, the following events are contractually deemed to constitute force majeure, without the party unable to perform its obligation being required to prove that the event meets the criteria set out in Article 1218 of the Civil Code: any pandemic recognised by the World Health Organisation or any public health emergency declared by the Government.

In the event of termination of the Contract, no compensation shall be payable by either party and neither party shall be held liable as a result of such termination or the non-performance of its obligations due to the force majeure event.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

In the event that all or part of the Services are to be performed at the Client's premises, KIWEE undertakes to ensure that the Umbrella Employee complies with the Client's health and safety rules. In such cases, the Service Provider also undertakes to ensure that the Umbrella Employee agrees to comply with the measures set out in the Client's prevention plan.

LIABILITY

The Client Company is solely responsible for ensuring that the Service is performed in accordance with the rules applicable at the Client Company's premises or workplace regarding working hours and health and safety at work (Article L1254-23(6) of the Labour Code).

Where necessary for the performance of the Service, the Umbrella Employee shall be required to wear the personal protective equipment made available to them by the Client Company.

Unless expressly stated otherwise in the special terms and conditions, the Client expressly certifies that the Employee will not be exposed to any particular occupational hazard in the course of their assignment. The accuracy of the information contained in this Contract is the sole responsibility of the Client, who shall bear sole liability for the provision of erroneous or deliberately inaccurate information.

Where the conditions under which the assignment entrusted to the Umbrella Employee is to be carried out are likely to present risks (Articles R 4511-1 to R 4514-10 of the Labour Code), involve arduous work as defined in Article L 4161-1 of the Labour Code, or require the provision of protective equipment, the Client shall ensure that the Umbrella Employee possesses the necessary skills and sufficient information/training to carry out the said assignment.

The Client remains fully liable for the property entrusted to the Umbrella Employee. EPS, the Service Provider, shall not be held liable for any damage caused to such entrusted property for any reason whatsoever, including theft, loss, failure to return by the Umbrella Employee, or damage.

Where the assignment is carried out, in whole or in part, via teleworking or remotely (at the Umbrella Employee's home or at a third-party location), the Client shall have ensured in advance that there is secure access to the collaborative tools and network made available, as well as compliance with cybersecurity rules. The Service Provider shall not be held liable for any failure.

EPS shall take the necessary decisions to safeguard the health of the Umbrella Employee, in particular by drawing the Client Company's attention to any identified problem that it is able to remedy. Where the problem arises wholly or partly from a malfunction which the Client Company is able to remedy but in respect of which it remains inactive, the EPS may, in agreement with the Umbrella Employee and notwithstanding legal obligations, take measures up to and including prohibiting the continuation of the Commercial Contract under the current conditions, at the Client Company's expense. (Art. 27.1.4 of the Wage Portage Code)

The Client and KIWEE shall be liable, in accordance with ordinary law, for any breaches committed by one party against the other in the performance of this Contract.

Unless otherwise required by public policy, in respect of any damage or loss that may arise as a consequence of a failure to perform its obligations or other liabilities on the part of KIWEE or the Umbrella Employee, regardless of the cause, form or subject matter of the claim for contractual or quasi-delictual liability, KIWEE shall only be liable for actual and proven damages and losses that are the immediate and direct consequence of a breach of its obligations or a defective performance thereof, regardless of the underlying cause. KIWEE liability cap shall be no less than 12 months of fees paid under this agreement and shall not exclude liability arising from confidentiality breaches, gross negligence, data protection breaches, wilful misconduct, fraud, or IP infringement.

The following losses are not eligible for compensation: loss of turnover or profit, damage to reputation, or any claim made by any third party against the Client.
The above limitations do not apply in cases of gross negligence or personal injury.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

For the purposes of electronic signatures, the email addresses designated by the Parties are as follows: For KIWEE: cpocachard@kiwee.services
For the Client: Philip.fanthom@talent-smart.co.uk

The Parties acknowledge that the proper performance of the Contract relies essentially on a reciprocal partnership conducted in good faith. Consequently, each Party undertakes, in all circumstances, to cooperate as effectively as possible with the other Party and, in particular, in the event of any difficulty in performing the Contract, to seek in good faith solutions that are in the interests of both Parties.

The failure of either Party to enforce, or the delayed enforcement of, a breach by the other Party of any of its obligations under this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of the obligation in question.
If one or more of the provisions of the Agreement or its annexes are declared invalid or deemed to be so pursuant to a law, regulation or final decision of a competent court, they shall be deemed unwritten and the remaining provisions shall remain in force.

Neither Party shall assign or transfer this Agreement in any manner without the prior and express consent of the other Party.
